

INITIAL FEEDBACK FROM TRAINEE LIFE COACHES

Approximately six weeks after enrolling with us, all new trainees are invited to complete a survey to share their experiences of dealing with New Insights.

The statistics presented here are collated from all those who kindly responded and relate to the period that has passed since launch of the most recent version of our training programme.

GENERAL COMMENTS OFFERED

- I have been over the moon regarding the material and support from NIA. Very happy and content!
- I have had an amazing experience dealing with New Insights from initial enquiry until today working through the modules. I am very excited and glad with my decision
- Slightly overwhelmed by amount of notifications received 😊
- I enjoy the material and so far I have been surprised at the change in my thinking around life coaching. I have to think a bit different in some aspects but it is refreshing.
- When I initially paid for the product I thought it might have been a bit expensive but when I received the actual material and starting working with the content I saw that it is well worth the cost. I am very impressed with it and with what I am learning. It is very comprehensive.
- Keep up the excellent work that you are doing, ensuring that we, your trainees are equipped to succeed in helping others to succeed.
- Currently all is well, have nothing to add. Very satisfied with what I have seen and experienced thus far.
- This is a top quality product and is very attractive as it is.
- It's professional, it's practical, it's personal. A top quality program on all counts.
- Keep up your constant and excellent communication with your trainee life coaches.
